PRESS RELEASE CONTACTS

January 2017

1. INTRODUCTION

This document has been prepared by the Marketing Committee to help members to locate selected Press Release Contacts that may provide useful information to them. In most the contact is given with their address, telephone, and email address Those contact details where their email address is not given then this is generally incorporated into their web site. The contacts are listed broadly in alphabetical order for the magazine or publication.

This document may be available in electronic format and in this case the email and web site addresses contain hyperlinks, which would allow the user rapid access to the source of information.

The users of this document are reminded that the details of the contacts listed here may be changed or totally removed in time. The Marketing Committee cannot guarantee the accuracy of the details given here.
